GOVERNOR SIGNS ENABLING ACT

Question of State-Wide Prohibition Will Now be Submitted to Voters.

END OF A LONG SIEGE.

Senator Early Cites Precedents in Support of His Contention—Walker, Mapp and Cannon Answer.

* Richmond, Va, Feb. 18.— Governor Stuart signed the enabling act at 12:43 this P. M. *
* * * * * * * * * * * * *

Richmond, Va., Feb. 18.—Claiming that the enabling act failed of passage in the Senate because it received on the final vote less than a majority of all the members elected to that branch of the General Assembly, and that the readings required by the State Constitution were not had, State Senator N. B. Early, Jr., filed with Governor Stuart yesterday an extended brief in which a number of legal and parliamentary decisions are cited to sustain his contention Senator Early devotes most of his attention to the manner in which the bill is claimed to have passed the Senate, leaving to a possible later discussion in the courts the more intricate questions of monopoly and of initiative and referendum without express constitutional authority. Senator Early signs his brief alone, some of those who opposed the bill having openly expressed the hope that the Governor would sign it, intending to raise constitutional objections before the courts after the General Assembly has adjourned, when there will be no opportunity for the introduction and passage of a new bill.

Senator G. Walter Mapp filed with Governor Stuart late yesterday an extended brief in defense of the validity of the enabling act, signed by Rev. James Cannon, Jr., superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia; Senator C. Harding Walker and himself. The brief takes up in turn each of the contentions raised against the act, both as to the manner of its passage in the Senate by a vote of less that a majority of all members elected, and as to the constitutionality of the bill itself, in the clauses creating a monopoly in the manufacture of wine, beer and cider for sale, and in the use of the initiative and referendum without a distinct constitutional amendment providing for direct instead of representative government.

90 YEAR CONVICT TO DIE.

Unparalleled Case in Missouri Results In Death Sentence After One For Life.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 18.—Jas. Schrumm, serving a ninety-nine year sentence in the penitentiary, for murder in the first degree, today was sentenced by the Supreme Court to be hanged April 3, for a second murder. The case is without a parallel in the history of Missouri.

June 22, 1912, Schrumm shot and killed Mont Hall and Jent Gibson, in St. Francois county. He was first tried for the murder of Gibson, convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to life imprisonment. He was next tried for the murder of Hall, convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to death. Following the first conviction he was brought to the penitentiary.

The wife and daughter of Schrumm claimed that Gibson and Hall had called at their home while Schrumm and his son, Harvey, were absent, and insulted and frightened them badly. They sent for the father and son as soon as the men left.

Schrumm and his son, the latter armed with a double-barrel shot gun, found the two men fishing. Schrumm fired at Gibson while the latter was lying on the ground, and killed him instantly. Hall started to run and Schrumm shot him in the back. The son also fired at Hall and struck him. Hall was also killed.

Harvey Schrumm, the son was convicted of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty-five years.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Richard Coxe Weightman, well-known in literary circles throughout the country, prominent magazine and newspaper writer, died last night from a complication of diseases at his home in Washington. He was born and raised in Washington. As a boy of seventeen, he joined the Confederate Army, Gen. Sterling Price, attracted by the young man's close attention to duty and his ability, made him his personal aid. His father, General Richard Hanson Weightman, was killed in the war. For a year up to last September, Mr. Weightman lived in Staunton, Va., where he had gone for his health.

Edward N. Townsend, editor of the Nassau county, N. Y., Republican, was found dead yesterday partially buried under a snow drift at the front door of his home at Garden City. He had been overcome by the cold.

Four members of the Besley expedition returned to New York yesterday on the steamship Byron after one of the most thrilling and adventerous journeys through the unchartered wilderness of South America ever undertaken. The eight other members of the party that started from here last summer were left suffering with fever near the headwaters of the Amazon when the four who could travel, pushed on to the sea, fighting their way through tropical regions inhabited by hostile savages. Far up in the Andes, which they crossed, the party discovered remains of the Cromer and Seljan expedition parties, including gnawed human bones, which indicated the members had been eaten by cannibals.

Tracy Hollander, a prepossessing 20-year old girl, was murdered Monday night and her body dragged into a cemetery at Aurora, Ill, and thrown upon a grave. She was beaten to death with heavy timber. The police have arrested Anthony Predores, a discarded sweetheart of the girl. He denies all connection with the crime. A man's watch was found at the side of the girl.

The State Supreme Court of Georgia denied a new trial to Leo M. Frank, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., who was sentenced to death for the murder of 16-year-old Mary Phagan. Attorneys for the condemned man now plan to carry the case to the Supreme Court of the United States on the ground that Frank was not given a fair trial.

Because the city council of Mendota, Ills., is attempting to cut his salary from 82 to 62 cents per day, Mayor Charles Rogers, of Mendota, has gone on a strike, tying up the city's business. Besides refusing to sign any bills or sanction any of the city's transactions, the mayor has threatened to sue the municipality for his pay. At the time of his election Mayor Rogers understood he was to receive $300 annually. At a recent meeting of the city council he found his salary was to be only $225. The city's executive then declared a strike. Mendota has a population of 5,000.

Led by a St. Bernard dog, a party of rescuers bound together with long ropes to prevent their being lost in the blinding snow storm, found Miss Lily Rohange, and her brother, Albert, in the woods near Portsmouth, R. I., early yesterday. It was found that the girl was not seriously injured, despite the time she had spent in the snow. The boy entirely recovered after an hour's treatment.

The Kansas City Post yesterday printed a rumor to the effect that Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, is engaged to marry Boyd Fisher, a welfare worker in New York, formerly of Kansas City. The engagement will be announced, the Post says, next August.

William Casper Collins was hanged in the jail yard at Calgary, Alberta, by the authorities yesterday while he was in an unconscious condition. He had been in a state of coma for three days. He confessed to murdering J. L. Benson, a farmer for whom he worked, but later repudiated it.

Charles Ruebenbuch and John Crozier, were killed, and George Seaster and John Fagan were hurt, in an explosion of gas in shaft No. 1 of the Williamstown Colliery, of the Susquehanna Coal Company, near Williamstown, Pa., yesterday.

SAVAGE BANDIT TAKEN ON BORDER

Chief Who Caused Mexican Tunnel Horror Now in Custody.

MAY HAND HIM OVER.

Outlaw Committeed No Crime in This Country, But Caused Fifty-One Deaths Over Boundary.

El Paso, Tex, Feb 18.—Maximo Castillo, the Mexican bandit, charged with responsibility for the Cumbre tunnel disaster, in which ten Americans and 41 others lost their lives, has been captured 38 miles south of Hachita, N. M., by American troops, proving untrue previous reports of capture made by General Villa.

With the bandit six of his followers. According to Captain White's brief dispatch, they surrendered without a fight. They will be brought here.

Castillo, to avoid a range of mountains on the Mexican side, made a detour which brought him into American territory. Captain White was on the watch, having received information yesterday from Walter McCormick, American manager of Las Palomas Ranch, on the Mexican side, that the much wanted man was in his vicinity.

Captain White telegraphed by army wireless to General Scott for instructions, and was ordered to arrest the bandit should he put foot on American soil.

Whether the prisoner shall be surrendered to the rebels is a legal question which remains to be settled. If this is done, there is no doubt that he will be executed for the Cumbre disaster. He is not charged with any crime on this side.

Castillo set fire to a freight train in the Cumbre tunnel two weeks ago The cars were burning when a passenger train crashed into it, and every life aboard was lost. The tunnel is still burning.

Washington, Feb. -8.—The War Department this morning received a report from Gen. Hugh L. Scott, at Fort Bliss, Texas, of the capture of Maximo Castillo.

It is understood that the War department will request the military authorities at El Pas to turn Castillo over to General Villa at Juarez. This could be done, it was pointed out, without recognizing the rebel movement on any but de facto basis. As the United States had previously demanded of Villa the arrest and punishment of the bandit, it is probable that the outlaw will receive summary trial at Juarez, and will be executed without delay.

Another suggestion being considered as a means of avoiding complications is that Castillo might be turned over to the United States immigration authorities, and by them sent back across the border at Juarez as an undesirable citizen

New York, Feb -8.—That Mexico City desires intervention by the U. S. and considers it inevitable, was the gist of a special dispatch in today's New York Tribune, the first fruits of General Huerta's invitation to newspapers to send correspondents to Mexico at his expense. The Tribune accepted Huerta's offer and sent a staff man to Mexico City.

"The opinion that ultimate intervention constitutes the only solution is held so widely in Mexico City, that it is startling,' 'says the dispatch.

The correspondent goes on to say that the European powers are waiting impatiently for the United States to eliminate Huerta and that some definite move on the part of the President is imperative.

A victory by the rebels is extremely unlikely he says, but the assassination of Huerta is a possibility. In such an event, he says, the United States would have to step in.

Huerta has plenty of money, says the story, and experienced Americans in the capital are cited as betting that Huerta will still be provisional president on January 1, 1915.

Mexico City, according to the Tribune, has no faith in the constitutionalists and believes that the rebels would be unable to establish and maintain a government should they succeed in ousting Huerta.

FOUR SEAMEN PERISH.

Steamer Roma Reaches Providence After Thrilling Experience.

Wellfleet, Mass., Feb 18.—Captain Garva and four seamen of the Italian bark Castagna perished when their vessel was thrown on the outer bar of Cape Cod near the Marconi wireless station just before noon yesterday.

The mate and seven sailors were rescued by life-savers, one of whom, Capt. Tobin, of the Cahoons Hollow Life-Saving Station, was badly injured by the overturning of the surfboat. The skipper of the Castagna was washed overboard, three men were frozen to death in the rigging, and one died in the surfboat on the way to the shore. The loss of life was the largest in a wreck on Cape Cod in years.

The Castagna, from Montevideo for Boston with phosphate rock, struck the bar early yesterday during a blinding snow storm and a 60-mile northwest gale. The combined life-saving crews from the Nauset and Cahoons Hollow stations set up their breech gun and shot three lines across the Castagna's deck, but the sailors were so benumbed by the cold that they were unable to handle the breeches buoy tackle. The surf was so high that the life-savers had to wait for some time before they could launch their life boat and pull out of the wreck against wind, sea and biting cold.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 18. — The Febre line steamer Roma, which freed herself from a ledge off No Man's Land, on which she struck during a blizzard Monday night, arrived at quarantine at 10 a. m., yesterday.

The steamer was listing considerably to port, but was not leaking greatly, her double bottom having saved her from filling.

The Roma got off the rocks under her own steam after being fast for six hours. The vessel pounded heavily, but this pounding helped her to release herself. When the steamer slid off the ledge into deep water her stern struck another submerged rock.

ELLYSON'S VIEWS ON BILL.

State Democratic Chairman Presents Six Points Which He Strongly Favors.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 18.—Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson, who as chairman of the State Democratic Committee, had given close study to the question of framing a proper primary law, said yesterday that there were six provisions which he especially approved, and which he hoped would be incorporated in the bill. They are:

"There should be no admission fee for candidates in our primaries.

"All expenses incident to the primary should be borne by the counties and cities, as is now the case in general elections.

"The appeal in all contests should be to the courts rather than to the party committees.

"The election officers for all primaries should be made by the electoral boards.

"There should be no party registration of voters.

"Heavy penalties should be imposed for the perpetration of frauds in elections, both primary and general."

"The administration of the affairs of the Commonwealth by the Democratic party during the past twenty-five years," said Mr. Ellyson, in discussing the proposed primary bill, has brought prosperity and happiness to her people. The members of the present General Assembly are patriotic and loyal to the best interests of the State, and the records of their achievements will, I am sure, be worthy of the best days of the Old Dominion.' '

"There are many matters of interest that have been, and are yet to be considered, but I regard the passage of a wise primary law as among the most important. The matter is now in the hands of the two committees of the House and Senate, and I believe they will give us a good bill. I am in favor of the enactment of a law that will throw every possible safeguard around our elections, and I believe that is the wish of the members of both houses."

The Willard W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at 901 Prince street.

MOVE TO REUNITE THE VIRGINIAS

Resolution Introduced Extending Invitation to West Virginia.

OVERTURES TO STATE.

Proposed, Should Resolution be Adopted— to Have Governors Name Conference Commission.

Richmond, Feb. 18.—A joint resolution introduced yesterday, if adopted by the general assembly, and agreed to by the legislature of West Virginia, by the people of both these States, and all the debt between the two States be settled, Virginia and West Virginia will again be united, and the grand old Commonwealth will extend from the Atlantic ocean to the Ohio river.

The lost child will have returned to its home after forty-nine years of wandering in the wilderness of self-government, and Virginia will kill the fatted calf for the prodigal daughter, and all will make merry.

The resolution is, indeed, one of sentiment, touching on the ties that bind the mother and daughter, telling of the trade relations and more especially the debt. This bone of contention is rapidly nearing a settlement and then all should be plain sailing for the reuniting of the old Virginia. The resolution provides that copies shall be sent to the legislature of West Virginia when that body meets next year.

The resolution as offered by Messrs. Robertson and Earman follows:

Whereas, the old State debt agitation between the State of Virginia, now limited, and the younger State of West Virginia, seems now on the way to adjustment, and will soon be eliminated as a bone of contention between these two; and,

Whereas, the ties of trade are now closer than ever before, the eastern section of the old State being the natural seaport outlet of the new State; and,

Whereas, as the two States have the same ristories past, one in splendid traditions and now one in commercial interest; and,

Whereas, the older State still looks back with fondness to the days before the civil strife tore the old State asunder; therefore,

Be it resolved by the general assembly of Virginia, The Senate concurring, that it express to the sister State of West Virginia its sense of the splendid commercial progress made, and the bright prospects for the future, but at the same time would like to call to the attention of the other the fact of what a grand and glorious Commonwealth the reunited States would make with the old area restored, the old relations renewed and splendid resources of each united in one grand whole to be severed no more.

Resolved, That after forty-nine years of complete separation, the State of Virginia, in general assembly, renews its former invitation to the newer State to take up and consider in a spirit of tender memory of the past, and with a patriotic purpose to work for the mutual benefit of all the people, this invitation, and to take any steps it may deem expedient looking to the reuniting of the historic Commonwealth, of which all the people of each are justly proud, with its one hundred and fifty-five counties, its three and one half million people, and its vast resources of its 66,000 square miles of territory.

Resolved, that the secretary of the Commonwealth communicate this resolution to the next session of the legislature of West Virginia, and if it meets with favor, then the Governor of this State is hereby authorized to appoint a high commission of three citizens of this Commonwealth to take up and consider the same with any duly authorized representatives of the State of West Virginia.

We invoke the grand spirit of the past that made the great State's history, our common heritage, we pledge a faithful loyalty of purpose in asking that this proposal be considered at this time.

EXPENSES OF ALLEN TRIAL.

House Committee Cuts the Sum by More Than Half.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 18.—Lawyers who prosecuted the Allens and then demanded $17,500 for their services—a bill being introduced in the legislature authorizing the payment of such a sum—will get less than half of what they asked if the recommendation of the House Committee on Appropriations are approved.

And, moreover, two of the attorneys who defended the Allens will receive $1,200, or should receive it, according to the recommendations of the same committee.

Shortly after the Legislature convened Delegates Jordan, of Pulaski, and Crockett, of Wythe, introduced a bill known as House bill No. 193—to pay the attorneys of the prosecution $17,500, the apportionments to be as follows:

J. C. Wysor, $5,000; John S. Draper ,$5,000;W.S. Poage, $5,000; Floyd Landreth, $2,500.

Many members of the legislature believed these sums excessive, particularly in view of the reported statements that some of the attorneys had said that they undertook the prosecution "because they loved Judge Massie like a brother."

The bill prepared by Delegates Jordan and Crockett declares that the attorneys spent nine months in preparing and prosecuting the cases, and that the trial consumed one hundred and eighteen days.

It is evident, however, that the House Committee on Appropriations does not feel that the state should at least, in its present financial condition, pay $17,500 for nine months' work of the four lawyers, and in the amended bill, as reported to the House and now on the calendar, the sums are fixed as follows:

Wysor, $2,000; Draper, $2,000; Poage, $2,000; Landreth, $1,000.

The bill authorizing payment of $1,200 to attorneys who defended the Allens was introduced by Delegate R. H. Willis, of Roanoke, one of the Allen counsel. Mr. Willis, however, is not a beneficiary under the bill. The two attorneys named are W. W. Coxe, and C. F. Coxe. They were appointed to defend Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards and they have not received either reimbursement for expenses incurred or compensation for time expended or services rendered."

Mr. Willis asked that the two lawyers be imbursed in the sum of $2,500, or $1,250 each, but the committee cut the figure to $1,200, $600 each.

CRITISIZES ENABLING ACT.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Congressman Slemp, Republican of the Ninth District, characterizes as a sham and a farce the enabling act by the Virginia Legislature, because, by the provisions of the act, he believes, a large proportion of the legal voters of the State will be unable to register their wishes regarding the liquor question.

"The legislature of Virginia is to be congratulated on passing the enambling act and submitting this moral question to the people," said Mr. Slemp. "So far as 'submitting to the people' is concerned, however, the act is both a sham and a farce. It is submitted to an abridged electorate, since only those who pay their poll tax and could vot in 1913 and in June, 1914, can vote at the special election in September."

PROSPECTS FOR CLEAR WEATHER

Forecast of Weather Bureau Brings Hope for Fair Day.

GREAT DESIDERATUM.

Warmer Weather With Rain Expected, in Which Event Nature Would Aid in Eliminating Snow and Ice.

While many cities are anxious to see the snow eliminated as speedily as possible, Alexandria is especially so almost upon the eve of the celebration of the birthday of George Washington on next Monday. The authorities are doing all possible to bring about this great desideratum, but many people are looking to Dame Nature to help out.

The weather today has been cloudy, threatening and dismal, pretending rain or snow, and while there is time for clearing weather and northwest winds which would bring about desired conditions, there is no telling positively what meteorological conditions may prevail within the next five days. Should rain set in with higher temperature the snow and ice will, of course, speedily disappear, and should such conditions—which are likely—be followed by northwest winds clear and ideal weather for a parade would follow.

While there may be some apprehension as to the state of the weather on Monday, it is gratifying to know that indications are favorable for clean streets by the time the parade forms.

"Cloudy tonight and Thursday, probably rain. Warmer tonight. Light variable winds." This is the full text of the forecast today.

With the mercury registering approximately ten degrees higher temperature than that of yesterday, still warmer weather and rain possible, the outlook for an early disipation of the snow and slush on the streets is encouraging.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

In Police Court today Edward Bryant, colored, was fined $10 for an assault on James Ramsaur, colored. The latter was severely bruised on the face.

Baby Welfare Experts Advise Vanta Baby Garments for Your Baby

Experts warn you to use pins or buttons on your baby. These are the popular little garments with the new Twistless Tape Fastening. This fastening is made of a new kind of tape that never gets hard nor stringy, and that positively will not curl or kink in the wash. It takes the place of pins and buttons—it's far handier—and is guaranteed never to pull off or rip off the garment. Vanta Garments fasten in the front so you can dress your baby without turning him over. A clever little fastening below the curve of the abdomen prevents a Vanta vest from creeping up around the waist. Our Infant's Store has a complete line of these new Vanta Garments, made double-breasted—fitting high at the neck and beautifully finished in a variety of materials. Little Girl's Plea for Slayer of Her Mother Embarrasses Governor.

Indianapolis, Feb. 18.—"Oh, you will save my papa, won't you," exclaimed Mary Cherka, 7-year-old daughter of Steve Cherka, condemned to die Friday, for the murder of his wife, as she ran to Governor Ralston, in his private office today and kissed his hand. The little girl and her 5-year-old brother Phiilip, came down from Hammond, Ind., in the care of an Indiana Harbor banker and other friends of Cherka.

The Governor plainly was embarrassed and angered by the demonstration, and declared it was not just to make a play upon his sympathies in such a manner. No hope for the wife-murderer was given. Last week the Governor sent a letter to Warden Fegarly, of the State prison, saying he would not commute the sentence of either Cherka, or Harry Rascio, the Terre Haute wife-murderer, who also is condemned to die Friday.

CLEANING UP FOR PARADE

City Force Actively at Work Removing Snow and Ice From Streets

Hundreds of men were at work on the streets today removing snow and ice from the main streets which will be used for the parade next Monday. City Engineer Dunn placed all of the men he could secure on the work this morning. The City Council having granted an additional appropriation for this purpose.

In addition a number of business men of the city donated the use of their carts and wagons on the streets to carry off the snow and the Washington-Virginia Railway is using a number of dump cars and all of the men they can secure to clear off the accumulation along their tracks.

If the city is unable to get enough men to clean up the city by Saturday, it is expected that the Washington Birthday Association, under whose auspices the parade will be held, will call for volunteers to assist in the work.

The residents of Alexandria are determined to place their best foot forward next Mondoy and if necessary, every man, woman and child in the city will turn out to help in the work of street cleaning.

Decorators commenced their work this morning of making the city gay with flags and bunting. The new 1914 model Wizard Triangle Mop has the "Human-Elbow" handle

This is the Mop that gets in the corners and all the hard-to reach places with ease, cleaning perfectly.

With a slight pressure and without labor the Wizard Mop sets itself for cleaning efficiently and well at any desired angle. The mop ends creep under the hot radiator as easily as it will climb the top of a door or a high picture molding.

And more than this, the "human elbow" handle permit mop's end to rest at just the right angle required for best results. It will work sideways on a wainscoting, will lie flat on the top of the door, and can be inverted for overhead work.

Just a slight pressure—and the work is all done—so easy, so thorough, so convenient.

The Mop comes already treated, it cleans and beautifies all in one easy sweep; picks up all dust and dirt and restores the original finish to floors and woodwork. It cleans, sweeps, dusts, refinishes and polishes with one use—it's the easiest cleaner to be found.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

SNOW NO BARRIER.

Man Flees in Bare Feet and Night Clothes to Escape Assailant.

Tazewell, Va., Feb. 18.—With the thermometer hovering around zero, and the wind blowing a severe gale, Joe Boothe, a respected citizen of Pisgah, who has a wife and eleven children, had the unusual and painful experience of being forced to run a mile through the snow a few nights ago, barefoot and in his night clothes, being pursued by Jim Howery, of the same community, with whom he had a fight. It is alleged that Howery went to the Boothe home and started a quarrel with Boothe, who hit him with an axe handle. Howery immediately attacked Boothe. They fought for some time in the house, and later adjourned to the yard, where they continued to fight with fists and knives. It soon became apparent to Boothe that he was being defeated, and he immediately took flight over the hills and fences to the home of O. E. Hopkins, where he was given shelter for the night. Doctors were summoned, and he was taken to Dr. J. W. Witten's Hospital at North Tazewell, where every effort is being made to save his life. It is believed that Boothe's feet will have to be amputated, they were so badly frozen.

HARRISONBURG IN DARKNESS.

Ice and Snow Puts Electric Plant Out of Commission.

Harrisonburg, Va., Feb. 18.—A blockade of ice and snow, together with a wash-out, has put Harrisonburg's hydro-electric plant out of commission, and the town will be without lights or power for probably 15 days.

With 14 inches of snow on the ground and extremely cold weather prevailing conditions here are serious. Residents are compelled to use lamps and candles, and the local newspaper is being issued with the assistance of a gasoline engine. A private electric plant at the ice factory and another at the tannery furnish light for the hotel and the two moving picture shows. The streets are lighted with lanterns.

The plant is located on the Shenandoah river 14 miles from town. A big hole in the tail race lets all the water back into the river, and with the gates kept open by the snow and ice the water is washing the hole bigger every minute. A coffer dam will be built before permanent repairs can be made.

LEAVES BABY IN SNOW.

Month-Old Infant Deserted Near Port Republic, Va.

Harrisonburg, Va., Feb. 18.—In the blinding snowstorm Saturday night an unknown woman rushed into the yard of Ed Bateman, near Port Republic, left a bundle on the front porch, and after calling to Mr. Bateman." There's a package on the porch for you." disappeared in the darkness.

The bundle was a live baby and on the infant's clothes was pinned a note that said: "Keep baby Ellis two weeks and if not called for find a good home for him."

The woman bought a ticket over the Norfolk and Western for Basic City. The babe is about a month old.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength.

WIVES WIN SUIT.

Test Case Establishes Right to Extradite From Virginia.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 18.—Federal Judge Waddill yesterday gave decision in two alleged "wife desertion" cases from the District of Columbia, a decision awaited with interest at Washington, because upon it rested the right of the Washington authorities to extradite wife deserters from Virginia.

The court held that Harry Mack, a navy pay clerk, and Joseph F. Henderson, a mechanic, both under indictment at Washington, should be removed to the District for trial there.

Mack strongly resisted removal. He is about 30 and his complainant wife 45. He said she was not dependent; that she had bought the wedding ring, paid for the marriage license, and paid the preacher for performing the ceremony all out of her own pocket.

ABOLISHES OFFICE.

Position of Commissioner of Asylums Decided Useless.

Richmond, Feb. 18.—Hugh A. White, delegate from Rockbridge, who introduced the joint resolution, amending the constitution, abolishing the office of commissioner of asylums, yesterday moved that the resolution be brought up and passed on. He declared there was no opposition to the resolution, as the job was agreed by all to be one entirely useless and one that imposed an expense of nearly $3,000 on the State of Virginia. The position pays $2,500 a year and traveling expenses. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 60 to 12.

From that time to this she has not been seen and but for her trunk, which arrived in good time at the Byrd street station, there has been nothing heard of her.

She has disappeared as completely as though the earth had opened and swallowed her.

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect trying to stop this supposed trivial trouble the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Eckman's Alterative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this case:—

Saratoga, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1906, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. R. H. McCarthy, he advised the use of Eckman's Alterative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight. I go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alterative."

(Affidavit) JAS. W. KANALY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

PREPARING FOR THE TWENTY-THIRD.

The attaches of the street department went to work with a will at an early hour this morning cleaning snow and ice from the thoroughfares in order to place everything in a presentable shape for the parade next Monday. There is much work to be accomplished, more, in fact, that the department can do in the way of removing the snow and ice which covers every street. It has heretofore been the custom a few days before parades for those of our merchants who use vehicles in connection with their business to become auxiliaries to the city in this important work and no doubt they will use their teams and employes this year.

Several years have elapsed since a parade was a feature of Alexandria's festivities on Washington's birthday The paving of Washington street with asphalt blocks has been accomplished since the last turn out, while a number of streets have lately been improved with vitrified brick and granolithic sidewalks. There is an earnest desire on the part of citizens to have all thoroughfares in the city placed in a tidy condition before next Monday and especially those upon which modern improvements have been placed.

Hence let all who can vie with a will with the street department in order that nothing unsightly be in evidence when the sun rises on the morning of the twenty-third.

In this connection it may also be suggested that the decorations should not necessarily be confined to King street, but buildings in all sections of the city as far as possible, should appear in holiday garb on that day. The celebration of Washington's birthday is an old and time-honored Alexandria festival which should inspire every resident to add his or her mite toward the joy of the occasion.

CHRISTIANITY AND PROHIBITION.

Rev. Dr. Asbury Christian arraigned the liquor traffic Sunday night before a great congregation at Union Station Methodist Church, in Richmond, and sounded a tocsin of warfare for Christian citizenship. The speaker proclaimed that it is the duty of Christian men to vote for prohibition. He hoped, he said, there was not a member of his charge who had any idea of voting otherwise, but if there were any, he implored them to get right or resign their church membership.

Many conservative people in this world fail to see the wisdom of such declarations as the above. Mahomets, who would destroy the vine because some people refuse to exercise control over their appetites, were in the world long before the Arabian camel driver made total abstinence a plank in his theological platform.

While all observant people deplore the fact that the thirst for stimulants has such a grip upon so many of the human race, they fail to see why preachers should hold the sword of excommunication over the heads of professing Christians because they do not see their way clear to vote for all the movements started by church leaders.

Had some of the enthusiastic followers of Christ passed the house in Cana of Galilee where the heavenly guest was turning water into wine they would have looked with suspicion upon the Great Teacher. One of His last acts on earth was to bless the fruit of the vine and command its use in asacramental manner for all ages.

The New Testament enjoins upon us temperance in all things, and in regard to meat and drink every person has the undisputed right to act according to his or her own conscince, or, in the apostles's words, "Let every one be fully persuaded in his own mind," concerning such things.

WILLS TO BROTHER.

Richmond Lawyer is Given Passaic Herald by Late Congressman Bremner.

Passaic, N. J., Feb. 18.—The will of the late Representative Robert G Bremner, disposing of an estate the net value of which is placed at $75, 000 to $100,000, has been filed with Surrogate Frederick Beggs, at Paterson. It caused surprise among his friends here because of the peculiar manner in which he provides for the disposition of his newspaper, the Passaic Herald, and the fact that he mentioned only one of his eight brothers and two sisters.

First of the provisions in his will is a cash bequest of $10,000 to his mother, Mrs. Alexander Bremner, of Camilla, Canada. This is to be paid out of the insurance money collected on policies aggregating about $40, 000, the balance being left to Mrs Edith L. Bremner, widow of the Congressman, who is to receive the Bremner residence in Passaic. Under the terms of the will, Congressman Bremner left all his interests in the Passaic Herald Printing Company, of which he was practically the sole owner to his brother, Leith Bremner, a lawyer, of Richmond who is to pay Mrs. Bremner, secretary of the company, and holder of one share of stock, $35 a week if the profits of the business warrant it. But if the newspaper and printing business be sold, Mrs. Bremner and her brother-in-law will divide the net proceeds equally.

TRAIN HELD UP BY MEN.

Passengers and Crew at Bay, While Mob Seizes Negroes.

Hernando, Miss., Feb. 18.—Stopping an Illinois Central passenger train in the woods near Love, Miss late Monday, a mob of about fifty masked men held passengers and members of the train crew at bay under cover of revolvers while they forced Sheriff E. F. Nichols, of De Soto county, to turn over to them John McGuirk and Bill Phillius, negroes, accused of wounding J. J. Ingram, a wealthy mill owner near Byhalia, Miss., several weeks ago. McGuirk was hanged from a railroad trestle, and Phillips restored to the custody of the sheriff.

When the sheriff and his two prisoners disembarked, the mob permitted the train to proceed while they marched the handcuffed negroes to the trestle. Preparations were being made to lynch both, but the pleadings of Nichols in behalf of Phillips, against whom it is stated the evidence is slight, was effective and he was returned to the sheriff.
